Program Education outcomes for Cyber security

1. To understand the technical knowledge and basic fundamentals skills in computer science and the fundamentals of cyber security.
2. To plan, implement, and monitor cyber security mechanisms to help ensure the protection of information technology assets.
3. To identify, analyze, and remediate computer security breaches
4. Understand the legal and social issues at play in developing solutions for cyber security.